

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 1, 1975

Dear Bob:

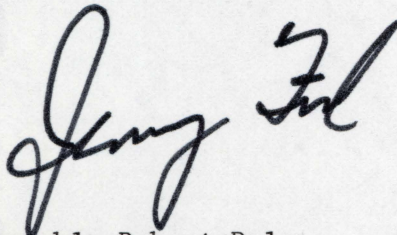

I was most pleased to learn that the Senate once again has voted favorably on legislation to modify the arms embargo on Turkey.

Your support is warmly appreciated on this issue involving serious national security considerations and wide-ranging foreign policy implications.

You are to be complimented for laying aside very strong domestic political pressures to cast your vote in the best interests of all Americans.

With kindest thanks.

Sincerely,
