

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 7, 1976

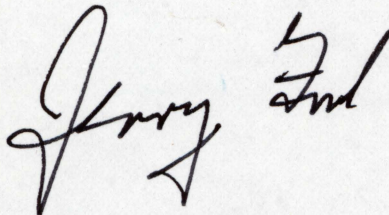

Dear Bob:

H.R. 10051, a bill to amend section 815 of the Internal Revenue Code to allow certain distributions of taxes by life insurance companies, was signed into public law on June 30.

Knowing of your interest in this legislation, I thought you would like to have the enclosed ceremonial pens to mark the enactment of this bill.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Jerry Ford". The signature is stylized with a large, flowing "J" and a distinct "F".
