

Congress of the United States

JOINT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE ON INAUGURAL CEREMONIES

November 18, 2004

Do you want to attend Bush's Swearing-In JANUARY 20

The Honorable Bob Dole
Alston Bird
601 Pennsylvania Avenue, North West
North Building, 10th Floor
Washington, District of Columbia 20004

Dear Bob:

As Chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies, I am pleased to extend to you an invitation to the 55th Presidential Inaugural Swearing-In Ceremonies on Thursday, January 20, 2005, at the United States Capitol.

Please contact Matthew McGowan at (202) 224-8232 with the Joint Inaugural Committee before December 15, 2004, regarding your attendance. He will assist you in securing your platform tickets and arrange for any necessary parking passes.

Please note that because of increased security, any individual without a ticket will not be admitted to the Inaugural Ceremonies or the Capitol complex. Tickets are non-transferable.

I look forward to your response and hope you will be able to join us for this historic occasion.

With kind regards and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Trent Lott
Chairman