RECEIVED

OCT 20 1965

BOB DOLE

Dear Bob:

I have your letter of October 6th inviting me to come to your district in 1966.

Because of the necessity to make two trips abroad for my firm after the first of the year, I have had to limit my speaking schedule until after the first of March when I hope to be able to plan a travel schedule for the 1966 campaign period. In view of the number of invitations I am receiving, I am going to work out that schedule in consultation with Bob Wilson and the other members of the Congressional Campaign Committee. I hope I can include a visit to your district.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Richard M. Nixon
