

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 18, 1969

Dear Bob:

This is just a note to convey my personal thanks for your sound advice and staunch support on the major issues that confront us. Having you in my corner means more to me than you will ever know. I hope and trust that, working together, we will be able to achieve the goals that we share for the good of the country.

With respect and regards.

Sincerely,
