

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 6, 1969

Dear Bob:

Bryce has shown me a copy of your Vietnam remarks to the Arlington Republican Women's Club on September 30, and I warmly compliment you on what you had to say.

Unavoidably the business of governing places upon all of us a requirement for responsibility and political courage, especially when the transient popular trend may appear to be adverse. You display responsibility and courage unhesitatingly -- and predictably -- and I salute you for it.

With warm regard,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of the letters 'R' and 'D' in a stylized, cursive script, enclosed within a circular flourish.

Honorable Robert Dole
United States Senate
