

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 9, 1969

Dear Bob:

I want you to know how much I appreciate your endorsement of our decisions concerning United States policy on chemical warfare and the renunciation of all use and offensive preparations for biological warfare.

It is my sincere hope that other nations will follow suit in the spirit of our decisions, and that our leadership by example will make a positive and persuasive contribution to an atmosphere of reason and restraint of peace and understanding between nations.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,
