

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 7, 1970

Dear Bob:

Tonight I delivered a fair and full proposal to cease the hostilities in Indochina. It is my belief that this initiative, which will be laid on the bargaining table in Paris, represents a forthright and comprehensive effort by the United States to bring peace to a troubled area of our world.

I want to take this opportunity to share with you the full text of the address. It is my hope that I may rely on your continued support in our quest for peace.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "J. Carter", enclosed within a simple oval outline.

Honorable Robert Dole
