Dear Bob:

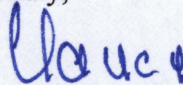

Ronnie and I couldn't let your birthday slip by without sending along our best wishes for a wonderful year.

We hope you know how dear you have been to us -- lending support and counsel during joyous moments and challenging ones. Your friendship has been and continues to be a treasure to us both.

We are grateful for you and hope that on your special day the kindnesses you have bestowed upon us will be returned to you a thousandfold.

With best wishes for a wonderful celebration,

Fondly,

The Honorable Robert Dole

P.S. I enjoyed seeing you not too long ago. You looked better than ever!
