

RONALD REAGAN

February 11, 1994

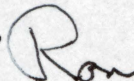

Dear Bob and Elizabeth,

I don't know about you, but I'm still recovering from last week's birthday celebration in Washington. You'd be exhausted too if you had to blow out all those candles on the cake!

How can I ever thank you for all your efforts in making the evening a resounding success. "Thank you" seems rather inadequate when attempting to express my heartfelt gratitude.

It was a perfect evening from start to finish and you were two of the individuals who made it so. I understand a great deal of money was raised for the Republican Party, which is truly the greatest birthday gift of all.

The memories of that evening will remain with me always. Thank you, again, for your presence that evening and for your years of friendship. Turning 83 will forever remain one of the highlights of my life.

Sincerely,

The Honorable and Mrs. Robert Dole
