

Mrs. Strom Thurmond

September 8, 1983

Dear Bob,

Strom and I wish to express to you our deepest sympathy on the news of the passing of your mother. There is nothing to replace the affection and respect a son has for his mother and certainly our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of bereavement. Give our love to Elizabeth.

Sincerely,
Nancy