

Dear folks:

well I suppose you think it's terrible because I haven't written but I've been so busy studying for test besides my work and football and basketball practice. I guess Russell really paired it on Hays Tuesday. ~~Didn't~~

Does Krummy miss his hat, tell him I ~~tried~~ tried to give it away but nobody would take. You might also tell him that I'm thinking of putting it on a punch board. We'll be changing roommates tomorrow morning at 5: A.M.; my new roommate is Harold. He ought to be able to help me with my German lessons. He's had 2 years of it. We're having an inter-squad game. Coach R. E. Plogle has divided the squad into two evenly matched teams. It might be a lot of fun but its colder than the middle of January here.

When you send my laundry (I mean my corduroys you could send my workshells and a bottle of hair oil. I haven't got <sup>maybe some envelopes and</sup> stamps much laundry this week die only worn I shut all week I'm trying to cut down as much as I can; about the only thing that gets dirty is underwear and socks. We get a 4 day Thanksgiving vacation it starts the 26th of Nov. and runs until December the 1st. Well I guess I'd better stop the mailman comes at 2:00 P.M. and its 1:45 now. I'll write more Sunday. I'll send my laundry home next week-end.

I asked our treasurer about putting a slot machine on second floor and he thought it would be a swell ~~idea~~ idea. He believes I could make around $5 a week. If I could do this I could quit one ~~of~~ of my jobs and have more time for study. Dad why don't you see Burton about it. I don't think I'd need a stamp for one in the house nobody would ever see it. Well goodbye again

Love

Bob.

The mailman just left so this letter will be a day later than I expected.

Well, knowing not to worry about his hat I'll crumple it up and send it home in my laundry some day.

I'm sending you the letter I got from the Justice of Peace at Perry Oklahoma. I wrote him asking what I could do about the fine and that's what he sent back. I think he's a little sneaky.

Goodbye
Bob.
