

Dear Mom:

Here's some more laundry; I didn't get to send it yesterday. I've been in bed with the flu the last 2 days. It makes twice this fall that I've had the damned stuff and it sure is miserable. You might ~~see~~ send me some vitamin pills or cold pills, some palmetto soap and a bottle of sparkling hair oil when you send ~~this~~ ~~the~~ back my laundry. I need the shirts about 9 all and handkerchiefs.

I'm still not sure about this week-end but I'll try to come home if "muck" comes. I'm afraid my grades are going to be pretty low at ~~the~~ mid-semester so don't be too surprised when you get them.

I'm having my worst trouble in Trigonometry; I just can't seem to understand it. Send me Sister's address so I can write her for the money she owes me; I need it for pants and a sports coat because all I have in my ~~suit~~ ~~is~~ one suit and the pair of pants to the suit which I lost the coat ~~to~~.

I have a ~~brown~~ brown pair but they're too small so I'll give them to Henry when he comes down.

Ask "dad" if he has an old razor around there; I must have lost mine for I can't find it.

Not much else to say except my head aches and my nose is sore. Good-bye. Love - Bob -

Mom -
