

Dear Father:

Just dropping you a line. I'm getting ready for finals this weekend. I've studied 9 hours today and I'm pretty tired.

Has Henry worn the clothes I sent home; send that white coat back as soon as you can. I got it mended up and it isn't mine. Send the other things that belong to John Strand too.

I'll be home next Thursday. Bringing Grace with me. Don't know how long it will be before I report for duty to the Army but it will be in May sometime.

Mom, I feel like a heel for not sending you anything for your birthday or for Easter but I just don't have the money. You've done so much for me; but I guess I can make it up to you later.

How is Dad; he's probably a little weak in the pocket book! I won't have to spend much more money; But I do have a cleaning bill and a flower bill I have to pay and just one more housebill.

Grace's mother was in Lawrence Friday. We went to the show; she is really nice and she likes me very much. Someone had told her that Grace and I were married and it sorta worried her. I haven't completely lost my mind - and I don't intend to for a year or two.

I'm sending some of my clothes home the next few days. Send the dirty ones to the cleaners and leave them at home so I

Will have something clean to wear while in home.

Go night, Love. Feb.

Sure wish someone would write me, preferably you mom.
