Dear Father -

Well I'm leaving for Brooklyn College in Brooklyn New York tomorrow morning. I've always wanted to go to New York so I guess I should be satisfied. I'd rather be closer to home but there's nothing I can do about it now.

I guess the school is really nice. All the buildings are practically new from what I hear, and the girls outnumber the men 6 to 1.

I hope that I can make good enough grades to stay there, but I'm scared that it will be too tough. I'll be studying engineering and since I'm none to good in mathematics it will plenty hard for me.

I'll send you my news

address as soon as I get there.
If classes don't start until January 1, there might be a possibility of a furlough before Christmas. I'll tell you more about that when I get there.

I caught cold walking grand yesterday; it rained all day and when I finished I was wet from head to foot. He's done my best to get rid of it so it may be gone before long.

I'm packing my clothes
now so that I'll be ready to leave.

I'll write and tell you all about the big city; it should be a good place to do my Christmas shopping - Godnight

P.S. Who did Grandma and Uncle John visit in New York. Send me his address!
