

March - 7

Dear Folks:

lie spent the last 2 days sleeping and seeing New York. Today we went to the top of the Empire State building and from the top we could see the Ocean and the statue of liberty among other things. We had our picture taken on top the Empire State and they are supposed to send them home. There are 8 of us in the picture and 5 of us are from Kansas. Our 3 day pass ends tomorrow and then I may be able to find out where we are going or they might even send us home for a few days but it is rather doubtful.

I had a letter today its too bad that things turned out the way they did but I haven't given up yet. There might be a chance to get a delay enroute if I were sent to the west coast or back to Texas. There's nothing I can do but sit around and see what happens and hope for the best.

There really isn't much to write about but I wanted to tell you that I hadn't found out anything but if I do I'll write or call you.

Keep good care of "Butch" and tell him to stick around a while and I might be home to see him.

Love

Bob.

I'm sending some stuff home tomorrow so that I won't have so much to carry around when I ship out.
