

9 Dec.

Dear Folks:

I told you in my last letter that I would try to write again before leaving. We are aboard ship now, can't say where or when we were loaded.

It looks as though I won't get to see Kenny now; but I may get to see Eugene Reiff sometime in the future.

How is Norma Jean,
O. K. I hope. I still and send me his address for I must of lost the one I had. I haven't written him for so long that he probably thinks that Eric forgotten him, maybe you can explain to him that Eric really been busy the past few months.

Put "lurch" on his rocking horse or let "Dad" take care of him when he gets fussy. I think Glenna thought I didn't like him, but I was only teasing her, and so I hope she realized it.

Goodbye folks.
Love Bob

haven't written here, but it looks like I might have plenty of time to write letters since my job doesn't require too much work.

Well, folks there really isn't much to write about, don't worry about me though, I'm feeling fine and hope everyone at home is feeling as well.

Write as soon as you can and anyone else around there can write too if they wish.

Let me know what you hear from Kenny
