(Sender's complete address above)

Dear Mom, Dad, Norma Jean:

19th Dec 44

I wrote last night and nothing has happened since but I know that you feel better when you hear from your sons in the service, so I'll write as often as possible.

Every day we get a little closer to our destination and I'll be glad to get my feet on the ground again even though I do sort of like the ship life on.

I don't suppose that yours gotten my footlocker from Fort Meade yet, but don't forget to write them if it isn't done within six weeks. I sure wish that I would have gotten it for there were a lot of little personal things that I wanted to bring with me. All the pictures I had were in my footlocker so maybe you can find some more and send them to me.

Tell Norma Jean to write and tell me how she gets and I'll try to write her as soon as possible. That's all for now, goodnight -
Love Bob.
