Dear Mom, Dad, Yvonne Jean, 1925 45

In making this one I wish just to leave the memory. I don't wish yesterday as I said I would mainly because I couldn't think of anything to say.

I just talked to a man husband and it sounds as if the Russians are really going places. I hope they get this in a hurry as the war will end. How you have from Kearny since the American started their big drive in the Philippines. I suppose to kill in New Guinea, but this has happened ever since the invasion of China.

Also no luck at mail call for me, yet rather disliking to go to mail call every day and then get a letter. It doesn't matter much though for I know your writing and you're letters will catch up with me sometime.
I haven't gotten my picture yet but it's sure when to you as soon as I get them. Hope everyone at home is fine. Douglas's is included. Did get a hand till get a little tomorrow.
