Dear Mom; Dad:

11 Feb 1945

Received a letter this afternoon dated the 17th December; its a little late but its mail and that really what counts. The letter had some snapshots of Kenny in it, he looks like hes getting along O.K. His sleeping quarters are about like ours but I dont imagine he has as much trouble keeping warm.

I hadnt heard the news about Vernon London before, certainly its too bad. People never realize how bad the war is until it hits that close to home. I talked to Mr. London when I was home and he told me that Vernon was almost finished.

Im still not sure of Kennys address, I couldnt make out "Moms" writing on part of it, the next time you send it, print it so I can make it out.

Glad to hear that Harold is married. I think hes met his wife, though Im not sure.

Hoping that I get one of the packages soon and also all the back mail that I should have coming. Ill write more tomorrow - Bob.
