Dear Father -

CAMP BARKELEY, TEXAS

Thursday evening and almost time to go to bed so I'll write as much as time permits -

We had a 25 mile hike yesterday but fortunately I didn't have to go. I had an O.C.S. interview yesterday morning so I guess I was pretty lucky not having to go on that 25 mile jaunt. I also had an A.S.T.P. interview Tuesday morning and if I don't get O.C.S. I'll have a chance at that. I really am not planning on O.C.S. for they are going to have only one more class which starts the 19th of November and that will probably be filled with boys from overseas. The classes are only 250 men and I'm already 500 on the waiting list. I've done the best I could so I am not going to feel too bad if I'm not selected. If I do make it I hope that you and Dad won't think that I did the wrong thing.

I read the letter you sent to Kenny and I made $14.50 on yankies but I spent most of it on winter clothes. I have $20 now and probably should send some home. We start our hivanas the 26th of this month and I may need it then.

I haven't sent Grace her how mainly because I haven't heard from her too much lately. I don't know what's wrong but I'll probably know before too long.

Kenny is doing O.K. he feels better and seems to be having a lot of fun most of the time.

Take it easy folks don't forget to save us a Turkey for Thanksgiving ~ Love

P.S. Don't need a thing but sleep — Bob
