Dear Norma Jean:

Well, I finally found time to write you. I was going to write to you the same night I wrote sister but, I had to get ready to go to Lincoln. School's fine but plenty hard. You'd better study in High School because if you go to college without having studied in high school your sunk. They give you about 20 page a day to study out of class. How are you doing in school? Have you had any school dances as yet yet. When do you have your first one?

I may have to quit football, I'm going out this afternoon to find another job if I get an afternoon job I won't be able to play football. My bank account is getting small and I don't want the folks to help me unless they have to. I'm at least gawig to finish a semester here then maybe I will go to Hays. I'm going to write Bush Gross the Hays College basketball coach and ask him if he would give me a good job if I would go to school at Hays. Don't get the idea that I'm giving up because I'm not. I wouldn't go to Hays unless worse come to worse.

John Bender almost quit school yesterday because he had only $12 left and the athletic dept. had given him a raw deal. He may still quit he'll be in Russell this week end you can talk to him.

Peggy's coming home this week-end. keep an eye on her for me. I'm coming home as soon as I can, maybe after I go home once I'll be ready to come back.

Well I guess I'd better close now because as I told you before I have to get a job or else !?. Tell Henry to write. Tell Ernie, and ^{Henry} Elmer to write me.

Tell Mrs. Beveridge to send me the Pony Express on her. Good-bye and if ~~you~~ ^{you} should happen to win the Pat of Gold send me part of it.

Love
Bob.

O.S. How are your false teeth. By the way I've gained ~~12~~ 12th since I've been here. when I come I weigh about 169. now I weigh 181. Not bad eh? The cook likes me and I eat everything in the kitchen
