

13 March

Dear Norma Jean:

Just a line or two so that you will owe me a letter.

I'm in a rest area now enjoying myself as much as possible. I've been sleeping most of my free time which is very limited because of my duties as platoon leader.

I've got a swell bunch of fellows in my platoon, one fellow from Kansas. They seem to like me ~~and~~ all right. I don't know all of them so well but I think I'm getting along pretty well with them so far. He's been on the front lines quite a while but it really isn't too bad. I haven't been getting much mail so I'd appreciate all the letters you can get people to write. I received a letter from Rev. Jenkins the other day. If you see him tell him about it and explain to him that it may be sometime before I can write.

I hope you are feeling as good as I am. Tell Dallas, Jake, Bert, Bill hello for me. You can tell Angelina that I've given up on hearing from her.
I may write again tonight.
Sulong for now -
Bob.
