

August 14, 1968

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

Hi, I sure miss you. It's so boring! Thankyou so much for having me. I really had some good times.

When are you coming up to Virginia? We're always ready. Nothing has changed here. I haven't seen any other friends yet... so I'm still homesick!

The trip was really nice. It didn't bother my ears at all. The cats were sure glad to see me. I locked my key in the house one day, but I'm back in now. Fannie came yesterday and I rearranged my room. I've still got a lot to do in my room, so I'll end here. Thank you so very much again.

With love,
Robin