Lieut Robert J Dole.

Our dear grand son.

Now Bob I must tell you how happy we were to know you are feeling so much better. Why it won't be long until you will be home. Won't that be grand, am sure I called Norma Jean out of bed yesterday morning to find out how you were when they left you. Wanted to send a card to Mildred and let her know how you were feeling - Wish you could of been with us Sunday. Carl's Owen's and Oscar's were all here. Yes we had ice cream. No potato salad or baked beans. We will have a victory dinner one of those days with you and Kenneth both with us again. What did you think of your Nephew I ain't he a swell little fellow.

your grand dad is over to Mr Crissman's. They are holding a sale there this after noon.
I see Larry's boat is on the sale bill. If your mother stays away much longer she would want to come back to little old Russell. Any way it's nice she can be with you. Norma is sure a lovely girl. to work and keep house and always the same. Really hope you are enjoying this nice cool day.
Saturday was awfull hot on any one well. say nothing about you boys. There in the hospital didn't you nearly roast? Wonder if Kenny would get to come home soon. I had better close as I must churce or no butter for supper. Now Bob be careful. dont try to get up and walk home. It's just to far. you might play out before you got here. ha Lots of love and hope every day you will be stronger. your grand ma
