

Canon City, Colorado Aug. 7. 45

Dear Bob. Greetings from Colorado. Sure hope you are still improving, & that you will soon be O.K. in every way.

America will never be able to repay her young soldiers for all the sacrifices they have made. God bless you Bob.

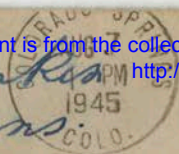

I wrote to Kenneth today. I am sure he has had many new & trying experiences. We are having a very pleasant vacation. I think it has rained some every day since we came. That helps to keep it cool.

Colorado can surely boast of her scenery. The mountains are sometimes almost breath-taking. However the Kansas plains look good too, & many a boy overseas would trade all of Europe for a bit of Kansas.

Mrs. Jenkins joins me Bob in all good wishes,
Sincerely, Wm. H. Jenkins
