

ROCKEFELLER CENTER,
NEW YORK CITY

Rockefeller Center is a world-famous group of buildings, 14 ultra modern skyscrapers, situated in New York City and located in the area bounded by Fifth and Sixth Avenues on the East and West and 48th Street and 51st Street on the South and North. Radio City, or the RCA Building, 70 stories high, is the tallest building in the group and faces on Sixth Avenue. The group also includes the 40-storey RKO Building and the International Building. The RCA Building has an observation roof and promenade from which visitors may get an unobstructed view of New York and environs for a radius of fifty miles. The Buildings include Radio City Music Hall, the largest and most elaborate indoor theatre in the world, seating 6200 people and home of the famous "Rockettes" precision dance corps. Guides are available for a planned tour of the Center which includes the observation roof and The New York Museum of Science and Industry.

ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK CITY

Monday.

Dear Bob:

Been wondering what has happened to you and how you are getting along. As for myself I have had thirty of my ninety days leave already. Spent the marvelous days in New York seeing many people I haven't seen in ages also visiting all the night clubs. Could get all the Scotch I could drink there.

Really have been enjoying myself in spite of all the Rob weather. How have you been doing? Did you see the gang at the "Drug Store" and tell them how we appreciated their record.

Saw "Oklahoma" and "Showboat" in N. Y. and the music was perfect.

Hope all is well with you. If possible drop me a card. Sincerely,
Marv Pitel
