that's

Well that is about enough of that subject now but I could write quite a bit more but I am not too sure, so will wait and see what becomes of it, if it hadn't been for you sis I don't know I could have made it, boy you really keep your word when you said you would write to me, I have rec. more mail from you than anyone, and words can't explain how much I love you for it, thanks again sis, and thanks for starting this flame, it may be only a flame but it takes a flame to start a fire (doesn't it) well I better close for now and get some sleep, so so long for now and write as often as you can.

Love you
Bud
Kenney

(Please don't let anyone read this and
