Dear folks:

Well I got you by last ^{Bob} night and everything was in good condition, and the chicken was ok we put the jars in a bucket with some water in it in the stove until the water was hot and then we ate a these pickled eggs were really ok too, none of these guys here ever heard of pickled eggs and they are going to have their wives + mothers make them some, Melvin got a lucky break and is leaving Wed. for dental tec. school, the way he got it was they pulled cards and he was lucky enough to get to go, and Ernie was called for H.S.T.P. a college but he won't leave till after basic it looks like I will be a bitter leaver after all, you can't tell I might get a break, I hope so.

Bet & me, Ernie & I went to town today we went to the show, & ate fish & chips & steaks we had a good time but it cost plenty as everything is so high now I better close for now I will write you soon thanks again for the big man we really enjoy them Dad: send me another parlay card Love Kerue
