

Dear Dad:

I have a few minutes to write you a line or two. Mom got here Sunday morning at 6:30. Bob + I met her at the train, we got passes Saturday at 5:00 and went to the hotel there, we were lucky as we got a real nice room for only $3.00, we ate dinner + supper Sunday and then, last night we got passes again and went to town, and ate supper and looked around town, I was sure glad Mom came down I wish you moved here come too, but maybe we will get a furlough 2 hrs. and then we can all be together, Bob left this morning for Durango I go next week, Mom left for Deming today she will be there by the time you get this. We only have one hike left this week a 16 miles, and then 24 miles for Durango one way so I have 64 miles to walk yet with a full pack "over"

Well pop I must close for now I first thought I would let you know how everything turned out I will drop you a line as soon as possible so until then be good

"How are the parlay's coming out"

Dad if I should get a furlough would it be a good idea to have you send a money order now, because the guy with the money gets the first chance to go if he has it or should I just wait & write a check on you if I get a furlough the only trouble with the check is it may not be so easy to cash it as a money order is.
If you send a money order & I don't get a furlough I can send the money order back to you. Think it over & let me know.
Louie Henry
