Dear folks:

Well I am still here at Berkeley, but not for long, we were told this morning that we are pulling out the 18th at noon, so as soon as I get located I will write or call on wire - but I will let you know as soon as I get there. You can't never tell I may be sent closer to home or maybe farther away but that is still to be found out. There isn't much to say except I am feeling fine and I am over

very happy about having Barkeley. I got weighed last nite and guess what I weighed 180# and I still don't believe it, I haven't done any shopping as yet but I still have hopes of doing some, well I will close for now & don't worry I will let you know as soon as possible
