Dear Folks:

5/00
5/00
5/00

I have the ambition to write a few lines so here goes, I received a letter from mom yesterday that she wrote on the 30th, as yet I haven't received the package, but I hope it gets here as I am getting anxious to see what it look's like, well the quarantine will be lifted the fifth of Jan so we will finish our examination and move into the shipping company and from there we will be shipped out.
 Where too I really don't know.
 "over"

but this quarantine saved me from going over last week. I think I would just as soon go over and the sooner we get there the sooner we will all be able to come back.

But you can't tell they may send me to a hospital somewhere here in the U.S.A. we will just have to wait and see, I am about ready to go over & try to call you. I hope I have better luck than the last time, I suppose Larry & Chen will be there by the time you get this letter, will tell everyone hello for me & I will write soon.

"Love Remy"
