Dear Galk's + All:

Guess what happened today? that's right I received one of my packages, the one that had the ring + everything else, and everything was in fine condition, boy:
was that home made candy ever delicious, it went like hot cakes, everyone seemed to enjoy it even my sarge and the ring every guy in the barracks wants to know where you ever found it, it is really a honey, I don't know how to thank you for it, but maybe someday I can repay you. my other package should be here soon, I can't hardly wait to see my watch! I was on R.P. again today, in the officers mess we fed 750 officers for dinner, who left this evening for overseas duty. so you can see how many dishes I washed, I only broke about a dozen of them.

How is Larry Ray coming along and the rest of the Nelson family, I hope they are having a nice time at home, I know I really had a swell time while I was there. I wish I were there to see everyone, but it can't be so, we will just have to wait until Chris man is over, well I gotta close for now. write soon. Love Lenney
