Dear Mom + Dad:

To begin with I want to tell you that my mail is being censored, and I will not be able to tell you all the things that I am doing, I know you will understand.

At the present I can tell you that I am somewhere on the west coast, but that's all, so please bear with me.

I am now an acting corporal, and I stand a pretty good chance of getting my stripes, that is if they think I am capable of being a 'non. com', I am going to do my best to try and make the grade. Well now there isn't a lot I can tell you, except I am feeling fine, and I am well. I received your last letter. You will get my new address soon

so please let me hear from you. I haven't received your package with my wrist watch as yet, but I hope to soon. Well
I will close for
now

now hoping to hear from you
soon, give all my
regards

Love
Cpl. Kenney
