Dear Galt:

I rec. your most welcomed letter yesterday, and I have a few spare minutes, so I thought I would answer you immediately. About the match deal I don't know what to have you do about it but I think I will just leave it up to you and you decide whatever you want too on it, and whatever you decide will be all-right with me. You know the best thing to do so I want you to decide. I can't say how long I will be here as I don't know, but if you do send a match send it this mail.

Well I will write a few lines in ink, I lost my pencil so I had to borrow something to finish this letter with, if you want to send some food it would be

Food ^{would be} gladly accepted, but if you do you will have to really pack it good, as all the mail is really thrown around. Pack it in a double box, send some peanut, butter cookies, or oatmeal cookies. Well there isn't a lot I know to write about so I guess I better close for now hoping to hear from you soon. By the way one boy here got a match from home & it was sent air mail, it was packed in letter & tissue paper - just a suggestion.

Tell all Hello & to write me a line,

Love
CPI. Ronney
