Dear Gals's:

I am very sorry I haven't written to you any sooner, but I have just neglected to do so, I think about home all the time and I really wish I were there to see "punky", - I am really very sorry to hear that - Pop - didn't get his furlough - but don't feel too bad about it mom - as you said he will not be going to school very much longer - so let's look at the facts, what will they do with him - probably the same thing they are doing to me, but it isn't so bad - in fact it

90502
he goes to a [redacted] like I did in Pennsylvania and he goes to the company commander there, and explains that he has not had a furlough, since he has been in the Army. he will get one, "15 days" I know because I was at a P.O.F. and they see to it that everyone gets a furlough - if he hasn't had one ~~up~~ up to the time he reaches there, well I suppose Gloria is a little dissatisfied, but tell her not to worry because Bob will get a furlough - if he just keeps on asking for one, if it were me I would - over -

Page 3
I ~~will~~ move my bed into the headquarters and every time I ~~will~~ would get a chance to ask the C.O. I ~~would~~ and he would finally give me a furlough.

I am still getting along OK and I feel fine, I still don't know ^{how} long I will be here on the west coast but I guess they will let me know when it's time to go. I still have my "stripes" but I don't know yet whether or not I will get to keep them, but I am doing my best, so all I can do is hope they decide to ~~not~~ let me keep them.

Mom you asked me about the Russell paper - I haven't see, any of them yet since I have left Penn. maybe they have my address wrong. By the way before I forget, I met another Russell Boy here today; I bet you can't guess who he is - Oscar Wheatley - I was really surprised I met him in the P.X. so you can tell his mother at least I met him even if you can't tell her where, well I guess I better close for now hoping to hear from you soon.

Love
Kenney

Please write Bob as I have lost his address, and tell him that I asked Floyd about Andrew Schiffel, and he said he thought he could get him a a recommendation without any trouble. You see Bob wanted ~~a~~ a recommendation for O.E.S. from Andy. so please tell him to drop Floyd a line and he said he would fix it up for him.

Kenny

Please send me Bob's Address as I have lost his.
