Dear Helen:

South West Pacific
July, 26, 1944

Here goes for a few lines, I don't have very much time left to write as it is getting rather late and I must get some sleep. The weather here is about the same as usual, it very seldom changes, I was wondering whether you ever sent my fountain pen, as I have to borrow one every time I want to write a letter and I don't like to very well although the boys don't mind but I would like to have my own I know you understand, oh yes about my wrist watch I still haven't heard anything about it but hope too very soon. I write so many letters I can't sleep right in but honestly I just can't possibly find enough time to write to everyone like I would and should so give all my regards and I will try to write to them, if you want to send me something send me cigarettes. I know you will be shocked at this request but we can't get them here, and when we can in the future we will have to pay for them and you know as I have told you I haven't been paid for some time so please send some cigarettes and cigars if you can buy them, well I must close hope you are all well & happy. write soon.

Love Dewey
