Dear B.B.:

Received mom's letter of the 18th and was very glad to hear you are getting along ok. of course by the time this short note reaches you I sincerely hope that you are feeling your old self again and are about ready to go home. at least for a few days as I know it is just what you need to put your back on your feet. please eat all you can so you can get back some of the weight you lost when you were so ill. you have to go some now to catch me as I am growing up to be quite a big boy now the last time I got weighed I topped the scales at 192

I will admit that some of it isn't quite as solid as rock; but I can trim myself down to about 180 and that is about all I would care to carry around.

You just keep eating and drinking those malts and you can get back to that 196 of yours.

Well Bob I really don't have a lot to say and I think you know where I am, so please don't worry about me, let's get those ~~any~~ arms of yours working again so I can hear from you again or you really write the kind of letter a fellow needs over here, well Bob I must close for now, so until tomorrow. Take it easy.

So long for now - Honey "over"

This small souvenir is
